Senior Class History

"Detour ahead!" Oh, you must be way ahead of the seniors if you've come to anything like that, because they've encountered no such sign on the highway to graduation. So, if you please, throw in the clutch and back up until you reach the starting point.

There you see the seniors as sophomores—just learning to drive. How they keep from having more wrecks is a wonder, but they manage, under the expert steering of Mary Elizabeth Bryant to roll along with no casualties. Luther Riles, Herbert Stokes, and Jack Reynolds, as vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively, look like back seat drivers, but are really more useful, and Mrs. J. C. Connell and L. E. Biles are very efficient traffic directors.

As you drive on along the highway, you see the same group, but now, as juniors, they've gained more assurance and are making good time. Helen Wilson, who is now at the wheel, is taking those curves with extreme dexterity; hence there's really no need to be afraid that the car will tip. Stanley Fox, vice-president, Beverly Blaschke, secretary, and Ruth Yarbrough, treasurer, are holding down the back seat, while Mr. Biles again is directing from the side and offering suggestions. What? The car is stopping and everyone is getting out? Oh, that's all right—they're just stopping for the junior class play, "Three Days of Gracie," and the junior-senior dance.

Now they have started again, and there's not even a cloud in sight as they drive into the gas station to "get her filled up" with new officers, for they have reached the last lap now—they're seniors!

With not so much as a hitch, Bob McCrary takes over the now smoothly-running and still up-to-date car, and Miss Fannie Russ (dainty as she is) and Principal V. E. Sammons become chief mechanics, looking after the inner workings of the machine. Davis Brooks, vice-president, Natta Lee Black, secretary, and Helen Wilson, treasurer, take care of the bolts, nuts, and whatnot, and give a "toot" every once in a while as the car fairly flies along the road. Now, as the end is in sight, the seniors suddenly stop and pile out! What? And so near the achievement of their goal! But this is merely part of the trip, the purpose of this stop being nothing less than to enjoy the annual senior dance, the senior class play, senior day, and the silver tea. This last event has a somewhat sobering effect on the young travelers, for they now realize that their days of touring are almost over. Piling back into the car, they ride on, almost reluctantly, but soon stop again, this time for the final halt.

Now they receive at the graduation exercises, which have come all too soon (it's these fast, new cars), diplomas as drivers' licenses, "must haves" for future individual use. And finally after a last celebration—a banquet which witnesses both cheers and tears—they drive off on a long, unchartered trip amid banners and music.

JUNIOR CLASS

What's all that tooting behind us? What? Juniors? Oh, yes, that's the special junior class honk, and it means that everything's fine. They're adding that extra honk to tell us to watch for the junior class play—"Going on Seventeen."

Well it's really no wonder that they're progressing so rapidly, for they have John Bonner as driver, and Mr. Elvin Geiser is right at his elbow. With two people like that and a class full of intelligent and enthusiastic workers, there's nothing to keep them from "burning up the road." More luck to them!

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Look at that road-grader! It's certainly getting along just to be clearing a thoroughfare!

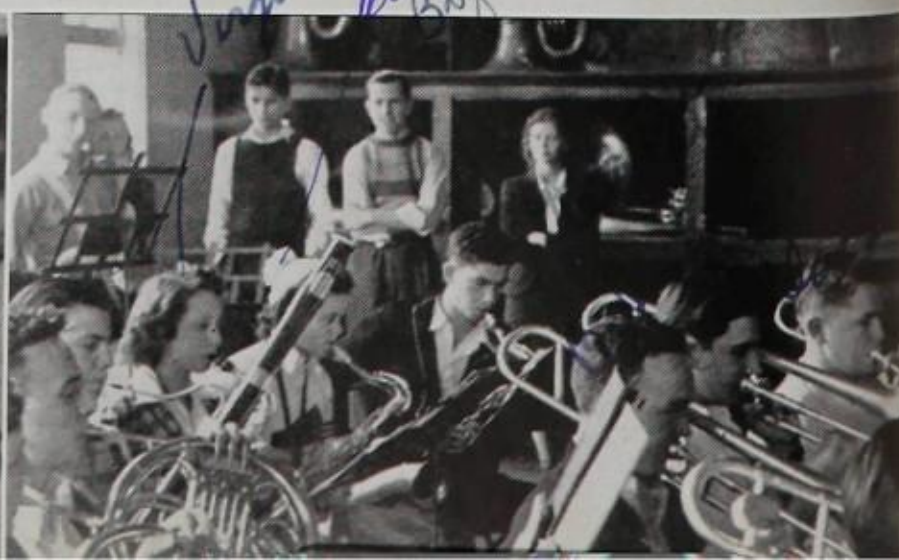

Of course—it's the "lowly" sophomores, who are proving, with Charles O'Dell as president and Miss Elizabeth Sloan as sponsor, that they aren't so "lowly", after all. The hard work of preparing the way for junior and senior activities is worthwhile, and these sophomores are finding it's a pleasure as well.

From 30 to 110 members in seven years. What a record! But it's one that the Trojan band has set under the very able direction of Lieutenant Loyce E. Biles. Now this band of ours is an ever-growing institution, without which school and city wouldn't be the same.

Host to the State Band and Orchestra meet this year, it entertained fifty-one visiting bands and took first division honors in marching and second in playing.

The second band took honors, too, being placed in first division in both concert and marching.

So Hot Springs High School says, "Strike up the band!"

A new cover and everything! Yes, this year's annual is different from cover to cover, thanks to Editor Mary Elizabeth Bryant, the staff, and the advisers.

After much studying of all-American annuals and many sleepless nights spent trying to think of the theme, the staff decided on "Highways" and proceeded with the work.

Of course, that was only the beginning. There were pictures to be taken, sorted, and mounted. There was script to be written, revised, and typed. There were countless little jobs that make or ruin an annual.

It was all done, though, and with its good points and weak points, here it is. We hope you like it.

Editor and Make-up Editor look over the news!

"We still lack a couple of stories for the Sports page. See if you can get that football schedule for next year, Billy. The rest of you get out and get news for the front page."

That is the signal for action on the part of every member of the staff, for the Torchlight is to come out Friday.

It's a lot of work—this getting out a paper. It's worth it, though, especially when you're working on a streamlined one like the Torchlight. There is joy, too, when you can say, "The Torchlight's off the press! They'll be brought around in about five minutes!"

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In order to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to encourage the development of character among our high school students, the National Honor Society was organized in Hot Springs High School. SPORTS

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

Again headed by Chairman Dewell Jackson, the Athletic Committee has done much for the promotion of all sports in Hot Springs High School. In order to aid in our major sport, football, the committee further improved Rix Stadium, already one of the premier stadia in the state, by resodding the field, building new concrete dugouts for the players, and installing a better lighting system.

In addition to this, the committee has bought new equipment to facilitate the intramural program and has cooperated in arranging the sports program for the school.

MAJOR Sports

COACH WAYNE SWAIM

In his first year as athletic director and head football coach of the Trojans, Coach Swaim has laid the groundwork for a winning combination next year. Coach Swaim is known as one of the outstanding coaches of the state, coming to the Trojans after coaching the junior high Spartans to the state championship last year. Previous to that he had served as assistant football and head basketball coach of the Trojans.

At the end of their first season under his coaching, the Trojans have compiled a record of three wins, one tie and seven losses.

COACH DUKE WELLS

Taking over the coaching duties of the Trojan basketball team for the first time this year, Coach Wells has turned out a team that has compared favorably with the stronger aggregations of the state, despite a scarcity of material. Coach Wells, who is known as one of the famous athletes of Arkansas, is also assistant coach of the Trojan football team. He was in charge of teaching the Trojan backfield men punting and passing, and his tutoring gave the Trojans a reputation of having one of the best passing attacks in the state.

COACH ELVIN GEISER

Coming from Muskogee, Oklahoma, where he was assistant coach last year, Coach Geiser has assumed the duties of coaching the Trojan track squad this year. Thus far his charges have rivalled the best teams of the state in every event. Coach Geiser is also assistant coach of the Trojan football team. As backfield coach he turned out a hard-blocking, tackling, and running group of backs that gave trouble to some of the best teams in Arkansas.

Working faithfully in a position that brought little praise, three boys served as managers for the football team this year. Included among these are John Searcy, Joe Bob McAdams, and Clarence Young.

SEASON RESUME

Opening their 1938 football season, the Trojans met a light, fast team of Gainesville Leopards, possessing a deceptive and well-executed attack, and were defeated 26-7. In the final quarter Earl Hunter, Olice Brawner, and Joe Brawner collaborated on a forward-lateral pass for the Trojans' lone score. Hunter, Rich, Demby, Priddy, and

The Trojans entered the win column in their second game, when they conquered a game squad of Malvern Leopards 13-7. After an opening quarter score for the Leopards blocked a Leopard kick and fell on it for the first score and led the down and took the lead. Big Talbot Shelby blocked a Leopard kick and fell on it for the first score and led the defense. Blair, Hunter, Godwin, and Perdue played well. For the first time that they had conquered the Trojans in Rix Stadium, the Jonesboro Golden Hurricane next turned back the locals 13-0. The Trojans outplayed the visitors throughout but were unable to produce a scoring punch. Elliott, Childs, Demby, Shelby, Hunter, and Godwin turned in consistent games for the Trojans.

Pulling what amounted to an upset, the Trojans tied the El Dorado Wildcats 6-6 in their first out-of-town game of the season. Sam Rutherford, Trojan tackle, earned a place on the Wildcat all-opponent team with his fine game, while Demby led the Trojan attack. Elliott, Godwin, and Shelby also starred with the Trojans.

After Betty Sue Brewer had been crowned Homecoming Queen by Joe Demby, captain for the night, the Trojans went down fighting before the state champion Little Rock Tigers 25-6. A revamped Trojan line, in which Jay Rowland and Sam Rutherford starred at the ends, held the vaunted Tiger attack for three quarters before weakening and allowing two scores. Rowland, Rutherford, Shelby, Muse, Godwin, and Demby led the Trojan defense. Bouncing back in their next game, the Trojans survived a last minute scoring drive of the Fordyce Redbugs and won 14-13 when an extra-point try was wild. Passes from Joe Demby to Marlin Godwin accounted for both Trojan scores, as Godwin snagged them consistently. Holland, Priddy, and Childs also starred.

Playing in the Pine Bluff Zebras' homecoming, the Trojans were smashed 46-0 by a team on the rebound from a tie with El Dorado. Nels Langston, classy Zebra back, led an attack that the Trojans were unable to halt. Demby, Godwin, Shelby, Brawner, and Holland played consistent games. The Trojans snapped out of the doldrums after allowing the Camden Panthers to score in the opening minutes, the Trojans snapped out of the doldrums and won 38-6. The game was featured by the playing of Harrel Blair, a transfer from Camden, who turned in several long runs. Other Trojan stars who led the trampling were Rich, Demby, Shelby, and Hunter.

TROJAN Cheerleading Squad

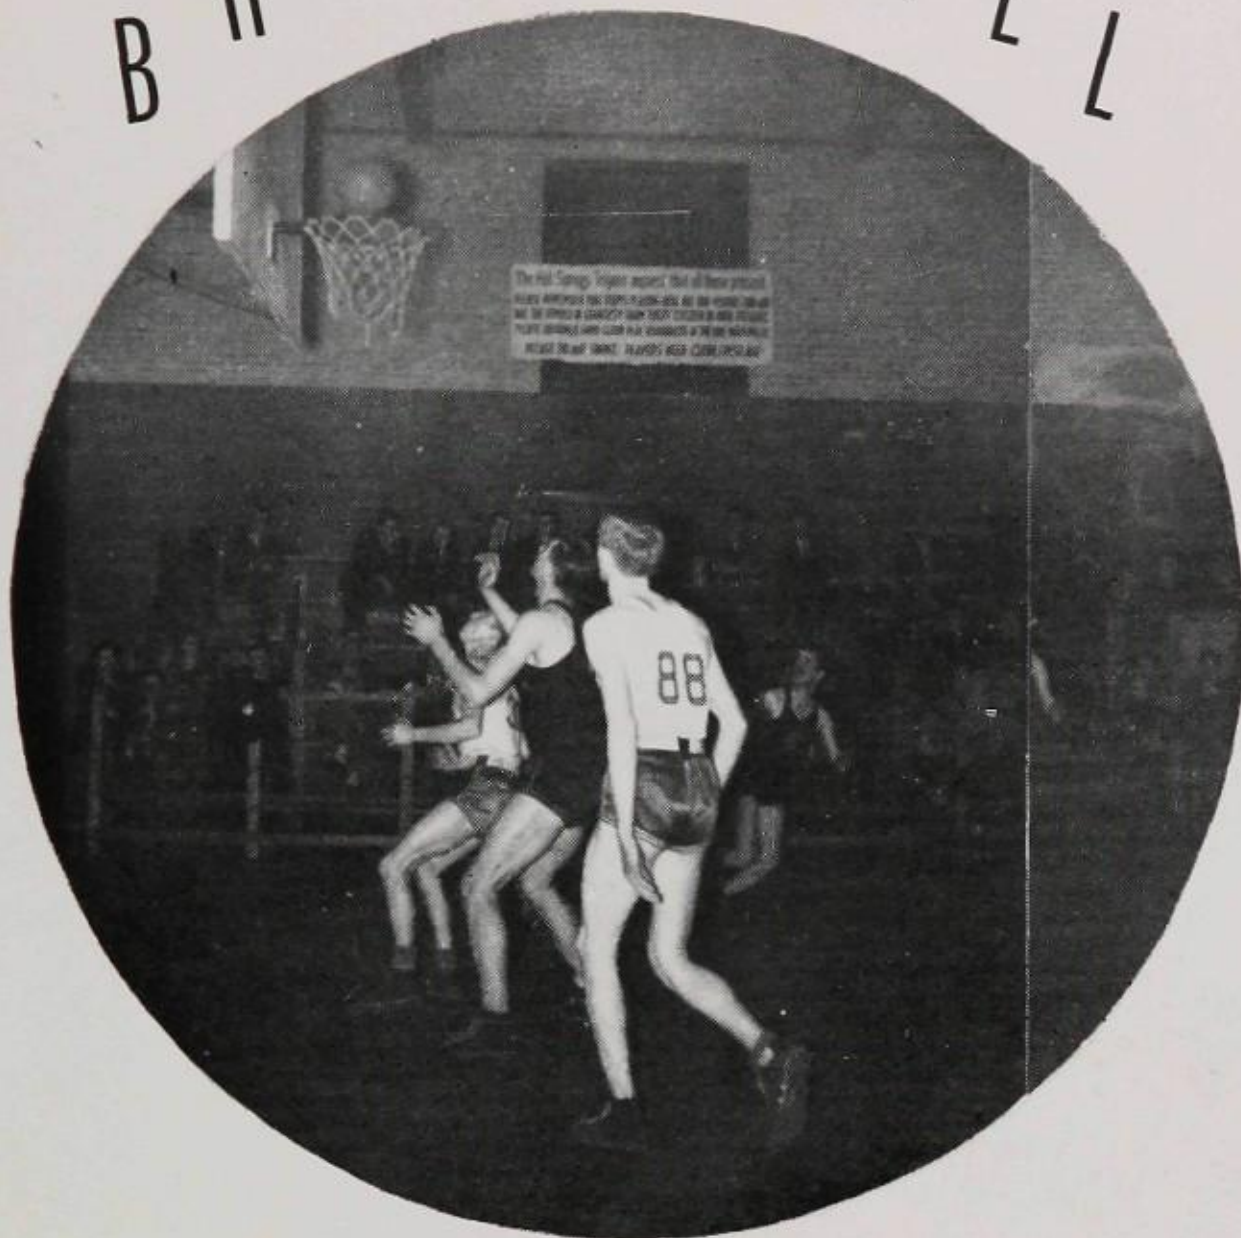

DEXTER, McCRARY (Captain), SHOFFNER, CHOATE, EISELE, BRYANT, KNOX, BREWER, YARBROUGH (Co-captain).

Unable to hold Wildcat power, the Trojans bowed before North Little Rock 39-6 on the latter's field. Marlin Godwin caught many passes to spark the Trojan attack, while Demby, Shelby, and Muse also played well. Again the Trojans crumpled before the attack of the Hope Bobcats as the latter won 33-0. The Bobcat line showed knowledge of the fundamentals as it cut down the Trojan forwards consistently. Holland, Godwin, Chilids, Elliott, and Brawner were outstanding for the Trojans. The Trojans were unable to get started until the final quarter, when they held the Grizzlies scoreless and pushed across their lone score. Shining lights for the Trojans were Rowland, Holland, Shelby, and the Hunter brothers. Five Trojan players, Doyne Rich, Joe Demby, Harrell Blair, Talbot Shelby, and Sam Rutherford concluded their high school grid careers with this game. At the conclusion of the season Talbot Shelby and Joe Demby, four-year lettermen, were elected captain and sub-captain, respectively, for the season.

Trojans hold tight!

BASKETBALL

"Rutherford sinks one . . ."

Playing for the first season under a new coach, Duke Wells, the Trojan basketball team brought forth a combination that provided strong opposition for all of the stronger quintets of the state and concluded its season with a record of 12 victories and 16 defeats, including tournament games. The Trojans finished in ninth place in the Arkansas Athletic Conference.

Marlin Godwin, sharpshooting forward, led the Trojan attack for the second straight year as he rolled up a total of 367 points for the season. He ranked sixth among the individual scorers of the conference. Harrel Blair, forward, took second place with 190 points, and Joe Demby and Grady Sellers, guards, tied for third with 131 apiece. Other Trojan scorers in order were as follows: Sam Rutherford, center, 125; Hardy Standefer, center, 77; J. D. Payte, guard, 36; and Gilbert Guerin, guard, 35.

Marlin Godwin and Harrel Blair consistently provided an offensive drive for the team, and big Sam Rutherford excelled at taking the ball off the backboard. Joe Demby and Grady Sellers held opponents' scores to a minimum all season.

At the end of the season Grady Sellers was elected captain of the team, and Sam Rutherford was voted sub-captain.

Eight Trojan players qualified for their letters, including Marlin Godwin, Harrel Blair, Grady Sellers, Hardy Standefer, Joe Demby, Sam Rutherford, J. D. Payte, and Gilbert Guerin.

Marlin Godwin, Hardy Standefer, and Gilbert Guerin are the only lettermen who will return next year.

MRS. W. H. GREENE

In her first year as coach of the Trojanettes, Mrs. W. H. Greene has brought forth a team that made creditable showings against all of the stronger sextettes of the state.

TROJANETTES

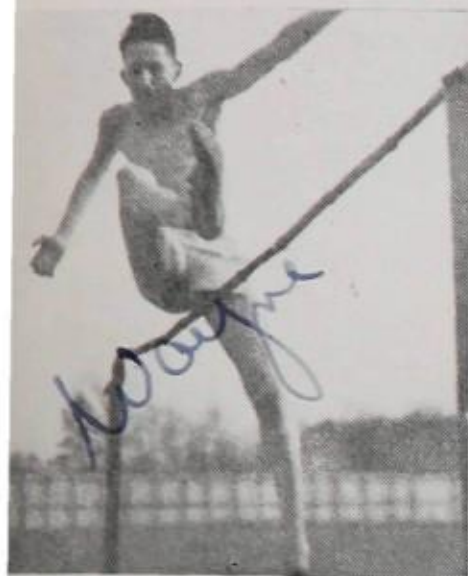

Putting up a hard fight against all of their opponents, the 1939 Trojanettes made a very creditable showing in every game and gave promise of producing a winning team next year.

Featured on the sextette this year were Martha Lee Cox, captain, Willeen Miles, Loveta Cain, and Athalie Mann.

At the conclusion of the season eight girls qualified for their letters. They were as follows: Martha Lee Cox, Margie Williams, Willeen Miles, Loveta Cain, Billy Jo Canada, Nova Conklin, Ruth Bradshaw, and Athalie Mann.

All of the lettermen except Martha Lee Cox and Willeen Miles will return next year.

Mrs. W. H. Greene served as coach of the team for the first year. Ruth Yarbrough, captain of the team in 1937 and 1938, served as manager.

TROJAN TRACK TEAM

In its first year under the tutelage of Coach Elvin Geiser, the Trojan track team has competed in two meets this year, making a creditable showing in both. The Trojan thinclads scored 9 points in a six-cornered invitation meet held at Little Rock, and 6 points in the district meet.

Outstanding members of the squad include Royce Herndon, the only returning letterman, Arvis Brooks, Stanley Fox, J. D. Payte, and Edward Dameron.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

Due to the steady increase in the number of participants since its reorganization in 1934, the intramural program has attracted nationwide attention among educators. This year the program was again revised so as to change from a competitive system to one in which more students could learn how to play the various games. Sports offered this year include table tennis, shuffle board, hand ball, badminton, deck tennis, goal shooting, volley ball, tennis, and touchball.

John Searcy and Carl Johnson were the boys' intramural managers; Patsy Bonner and Martha Lee Cox were the girls' managers. Elizabeth Davis served as secretary of the intramural program.

Winning the only team tournament held this year, the Brass Knuckle Gang of the Trojan Band defeated the Dead End Gang of the McCrory, Geymann, Russ, and Collier home room group 6-0 in the finals to take the touchball championship for the second consecutive year.

AWARDS

Symbolic of many victories by Hot Springs High School students are the trophies which they have amassed. Included in these awards are a few pictures here.

TENNIS TEAM

Although there were no returning lettermen, the 1939 tennis team has given promise of living up to the records compiled by previous Trojan net stars. Following a loss to Little Rock's state champions in the season opener, the tennists have grown stronger as they acquired experience. Both Jack ^{Davis} ~~Davis~~, number one single player, and the doubles team, composed of Joseph Sweatt and Bill Foster, took second place in the district. Other members of the team include Cale Corrington, James Campbell, Robert Gray, Scott Campbell, and Jack Muse.

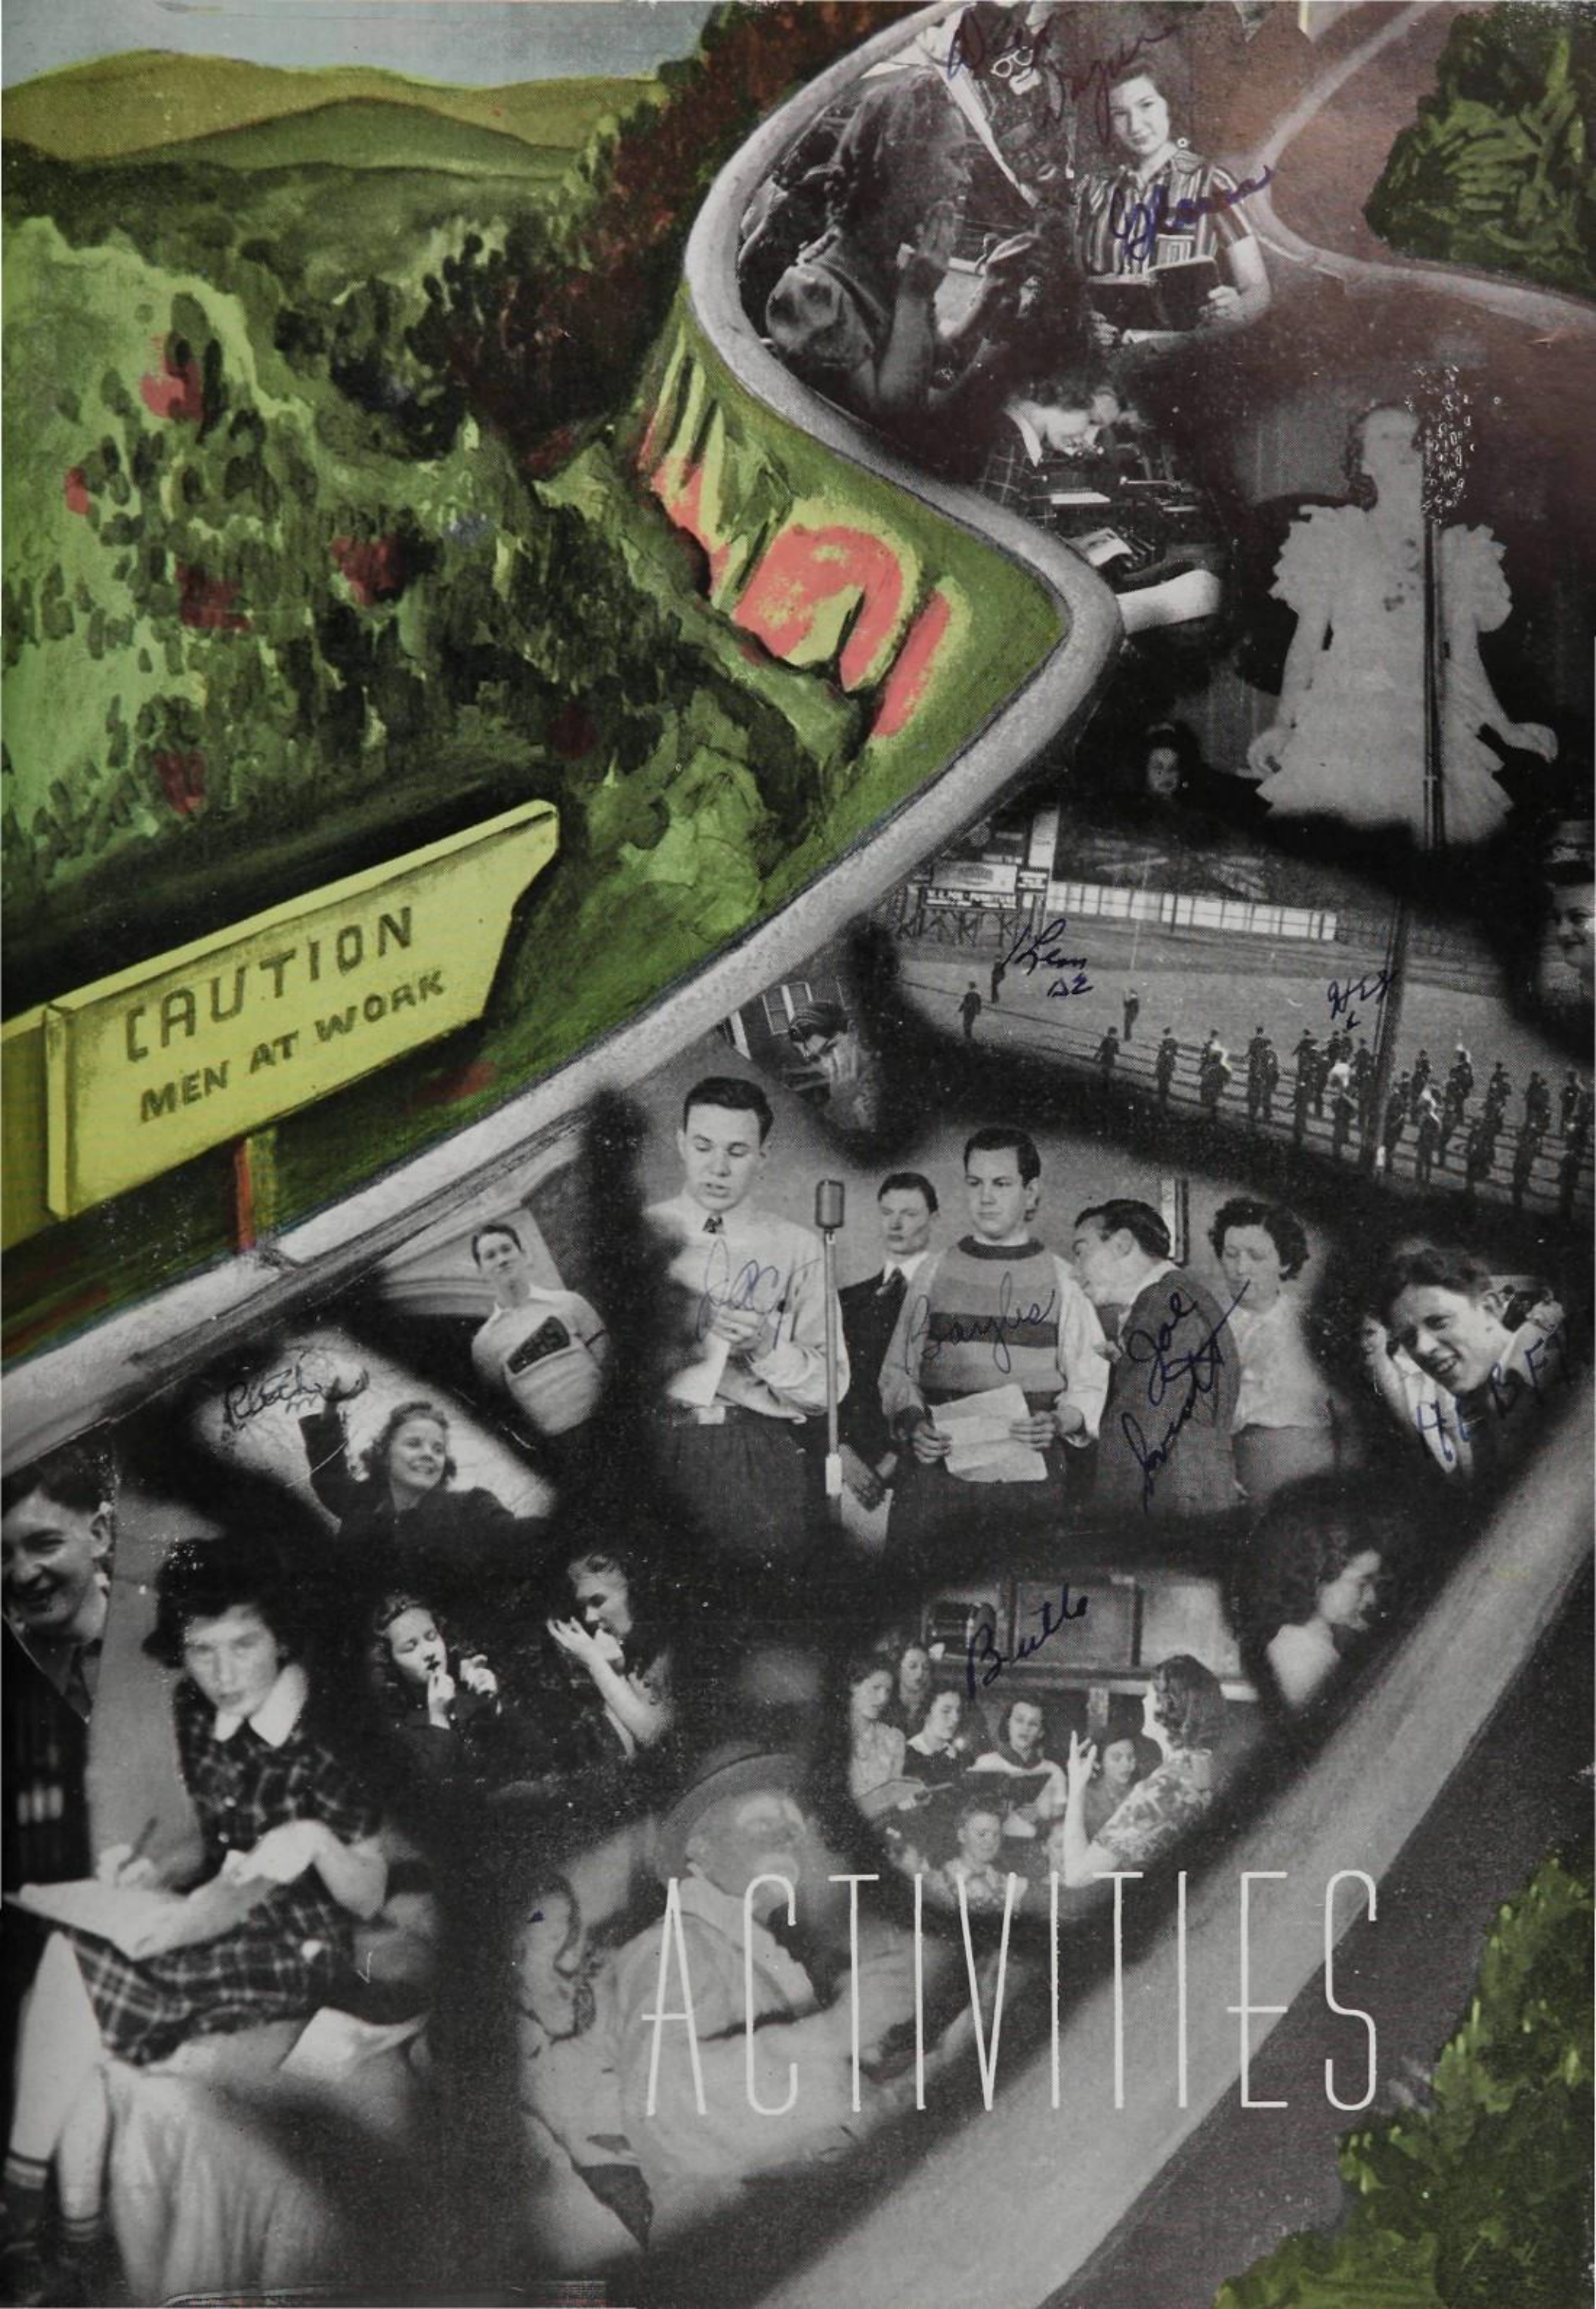

GOLF TEAM

With both members of last year's championship golf team returning, Billy Schrader and Carl Johnson again won the state championship this year. Following their initial victory over the Little Rock Tigers, the local divot-diggers compiled an impressive record, and they seemed stronger than ever. Walter Ebel, Martin Eisele, and Bob McCrary were the other members of the team.

GYM MANAGERS

Under the revised intramural program managers have been assigned to take charge of the gymnasium during each period of the day. Students who have served in this capacity are as follows: Martha Cox, Ann Stell, Lillian Claire Cornnigton, Patsy Bonner, Mary Elizabeth Bryant, Gloria Parker, Nell Rita Rigsby, Elizabeth Davis, John Searcy, Robert Gray, Gilbert Geurin, Bob McCrary, Tony Skrivanos, and Carl Johnson.

TROPHIES

Hot Springs High School is especially proud of its many trophies signifying the abilities and accomplishments of students who have left behind these beautiful memoirs of their achievements.

Hot Springs has always ranked favorably in literary meets thereby increasing our already large collection of trophies.

The sweepstakes of the sixth district meet was won this year by Hot Springs.

FLORENCE KNOX

Speaking of excellence, Florence Knox is Hot Springs High School's "gem of purest ray serene", being our Miss Citizenship representative and president of the student body. Her superior work and attitudes are bound inextricably with a sweet disposition and charming manner. Florence is also a member of the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll.

PHILIP GREEN

He doesn't look like an editor, but he is—a very good one. He's editor of the Torchlight, and under his direction it's been streamlined. He's a member of Quill and Scroll, of the National Honor Society, of the Student Council, and is on the annual and Modern Musings staffs. He's a Junior Rotarian, too.

MARNETTE CHESNUTT

Glossy brown hair and deep brown eyes, a tiny mouth, personality — Marnette Chesnutt, vice president of the student body. She's an active Girl Reserve, too, recently being elected state president of the Girl Reserves. She's an all-rounder, all right, grades and everything.

B. W. ROGERS

Out of the way! Here comes a National Quill and Scroll award holder. Why, certainly, B. W. was one of the winners in the advertising section of the National Quill and Scroll contest held recently. He has been on the Torchlight staff in the capacity of make-up editor for two years, and has been make-up editor on the Modern Musings staff that long, too.

MADGE MASON

Combine good nature and good sense, and whom do you have? None other than Madge Mason, president of the National Honor Society. She is also a member of Quill and Scroll, on the editorial board of Modern Musings, on the annual staff, and has served on the Student Council.

H A L L O

BOB McCRARY

The senior class presidents are always a fine lot. And no less pleasing than the others is this year's, Bob McCrary. Besides holding a presidency, Bob is a member of Quill and Scroll, an active member of the Trojan band, a cheerleader, and has been a Junior Rotarian.

MARY ELIZABETH BRYANT

May we present Miss Bryant? Tall and gracious, this editor of a new and different annual is a wonder of a director—and a very lovely girl. Being a member of the National Honor Society, a member of the Quill and Scroll, on the Torchlight staff, and a cheerleader are other honors of hers.

JOHN BONNER

He's unassuming, but this blonde, good-natured boy fills his junior class presidency in the best possible way. He's treasurer of the Student Council, too, and has been Junior Rotarian.

STELLA PARKER

A likeable, happy young miss always—this junior assistant editor of the annual. She's a member of the National Honor Society, secretary of the Student Council, treasurer of the junior class, a reporter on the Torchlight and, what's more, a straight 'A' student.

CHARLES O'DELL

There are serious thoughts in this sophomore class president's head, and it probably is due to these thoughts that the sophomore class has got along so well this year. Besides being a grand student, Charles is also an athlete, a mainstay on the football team.

HARRY LOCKHART

Attention! Harry is ready to start, and with a motion of his baton, he brings in the band. He's student director, you know, and has been in band work for six years. You can see that he really knows what he is doing.

MIRIAM ALEXANDER

"Hey, secretary, come here a minute." And Miriam comes. She not only is athletic and band secretary (and that means a lot of hard work) but also is a member of the National Honor Society and of the annual staff.

BILLY BIGGS

Band again! And this time the captain—Billy it is, and he couldn't be improved upon. You see, he, too, is a veteran, and his time is the band's time—at all times! He's an efficient finance chairman of the senior class and another Junior Rotarian.

MARY ELIZABETH KNOX

Petite and vivacious, the editor of Modern Musings makes a hit with everyone. She's smart, too. Besides being assistant editor of the Old Gold Book, she is a member of the National Honor Society, the senior executive board, and is a cheerleader.

DAVIS BROOKS

Three cheers for Davis! band and senior class he one who always can be depended on to work to a limit and do his work well. He accomplishes what he sets out to do—and that's a rare compliment. He was the last Junior Rotarian of the current school year.

F F A M E

HELEN WILSON

If it's true that "all the world loves a lover", it's also true that "all the world works a worker", for Helen is senior class treasurer, Torchlight business manager, National Honor Society treasurer, Student Council corresponding secretary, and a Quill and Scroll member.

BOYD GOODWIN

You'd never think, to see this quiet boy, that he's an autograph fiend—but he is. Anyway, he's something else, too; besides being a member of the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, and being on the Modern Musings staff, he is the strength of the senior class in lunch-token selling.

INDIA HANKINS

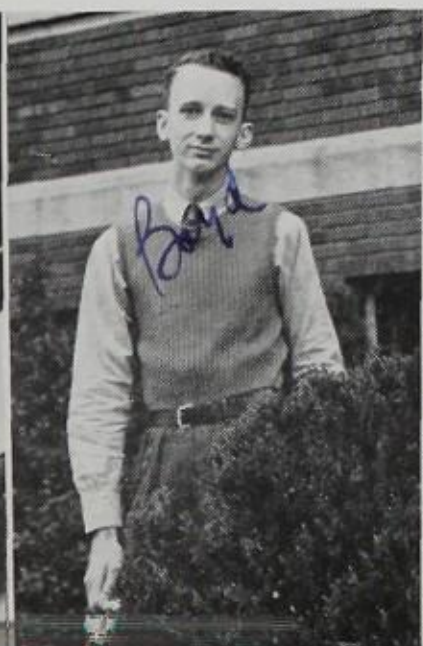

When all else is lost, India will have her sense of humor. She has her more serious side, though, for she is a poet. She's a hard worker, too, as she's humor editor of the Torchlight, humor and feature editor of the annual, member of Quill and Scroll and National Honor Society.

JOHN SEARCY

There's work behind those football games you see—lots of details, and John Searcy is the one who carries out a great number of them. He's been football manager for three years, basketball manager for two, and intramural manager for one. A great game, John!

ELIZABETH DAVIS

"Tres jolie." Yes, the Elizabeth, who is editor of the Girl Reserve paper, National Honor Society member, and intramural manager, all at once, without being rushed. Elizabeth is past president of the home room program committee, too.

May 25.—Graduation.

HERE WE ARE — we won't say at our best. (You can judge for yourself if it's our worst!!)
Perhaps we should merely mention, "Here we are at school!" Whether worrying about the English test, exclaiming over the success of a chemistry experiment, working out a schedule in the office, or just standing around to hear the "latest", we have had fun. The faces of those who are to leave forever the classrooms of Hot Springs High School on May 25 show no unhappiness here as they mingle with the Sophs and Juniors, who will be considered lucky on the day of graduation. You see here the Seniors, the citizens of tomorrow; the Juniors, Seniors of tomorrow; the Sophomores—well, knowing the Sophs, let's not say what they'll be tomorrow. But, at any rate, here is Hot Springs High—School of Schools to us!

O. Martin Eide wishes to ~~scribble~~ scribble you some good luck — R. A.
